I understand fully the directions that have been given to the school by the physician and agree to permit the school to administer the medication as directed or to monitor the self-administration of the medication by my child. In consideration of the Charter School's agreement to use good faith efforts to follow the physician's instructions, the School is hereby relieved from liability for any failure to properly administer or to monitor the self-administration of the medication.

I am aware of the medication and the directions for disbursing said medication and agree to permit the school to administer the medication as directed or to monitor the self-administration of the medication by my child. In consideration of the Urban Academy's desire to use good faith efforts to follow the physician's instructions, the school is hereby relieved from liability for any failure to properly administer or to monitor the self-administration of the medication.
